It is a matter of great honour and satisfaction that Journal of Rational Pharmacotherapeutics and Research (a peer reviewed, open access multidisciplinary medical journal), an official publication of the Indian Society for Rational Pharmacotherapeutics has come into existence. The responsibility bestowed upon me by stalwarts of society, Dr KK Sharma (President-ISRPT), Dr Y.K Gupta (Dean-ISRPT), Dr Harmeet S Rehan (Secretary-ISRPT) and Dr SK Maulik shall be carried forward by editorial team of JRPR with great dedication and devotion to match the expectations of the society.

We shall strive to make JRPR a mirror reflection of the Indian Society of Rational Pharmacotherapeutics. It will be an endeavour to satisfy the professional quest, collect, disseminate medical information, scientific knowledge about various current medical problems, update & increase the interactions among the medical fraternity in the larger interest of suffering mankind. The focus shall remain on rational pharmacotherapeutics, standard treatment guidelines, pharmacovigilance, clinical pharmacology, drug discovery & development, rational drug prescribing, essential drugs, drug policy, evidence based research, preclinical and clinical research.

Journal welcomes manuscript as review articles, original articles & various interesting case reports, new horizons, drug reviews and drug alerts. Manuscripts for publication will be considered on their individual merit. All manuscripts will be subjected to peer review. The ethical standards of experiments must be in accordance with the guidelines provided by the CPCSEA (animal) and ICMR (human). Unethical publication practices shall be unacceptable.

The correspondence with two prime agencies Embase and Medline shall only be possible in future after four regular issues of JRPR are published.

I take this opportunity to request one and all to submit at least one of their best original publication so that the international standards of medical journalism be met and it becomes easy for the editorial team to get journal more and more indexed and improve its citation.

With the pledge and promise "JRPR" starts its journey and shall prove to be an important medical communication and journal of scientific excellence in the field of Pharmacology, Clinical medicine and allied specialties with your valuable contributions and suggestions.
